Relationships With Industry and Other Entities—The ACC and AHA exclusively sponsor the work of GWCs, without commercial support, and members volunteer their time for this activity. The Task Force makes every effort to avoid actual, potential, or perceived conflicts of interest that might arise through relationships with industry or other entities (RWI).

More recently, the interest in using call networks as a new Big Data source for credit scoring has gained traction, e.g., with Wei et al. formulating the potential value of credit scores obtained with networks - for example, based on social media or calls - and how strategic tie-formation might affect these scores. Although especially interesting in relation to the Chinese government's ...

A simulation is an approximate imitation of the operation of a process or system; the act of simulating first requires a model is developed. This model is a well-defined description of the simulated subject, and represents its key characteristics, such as its behaviour, functions and abstract or physical properties.
