In both Socialism and pacifism the essential idea is that the individual should mentally "lie down" and "let George do it."

Pacifism | Definition of Pacifism at Dictionary.com

n. also bread-winner, "one who supplies a living for others, especially a family," 1821, from the noun bread (probably in a literal sense) + winner, from win (v.) in its sense of "struggle for, work at." Attested slightly earlier (1818) in sense "skill or art by which one makes a living." Not too far removed from the image at the root of lord (n.).
