A community is a small or large social unit (a group of living things) that has something in common, such as norms, religion, values, or identity. Communities often share a sense of place that is situated in a given geographical area (e.g. a country, village, town, or neighborhood) or in virtual space through communication platforms. Durable relations that extend beyond immediate genealogical ...

I got a nice surprise yesterday. My friend Hubert Mösch who lives in Bayreuth, Germany, sent a newly published book to me entitled, "Der Schneeberg - Höchster Berg des Fichtelgebirge" by Thiem Rudolf. It is a beautiful book and contains many pictures of the mountain, summit and the buildings that were on it over the last century, from early 1900 through the war years with Nazi radar ...
